Distance Learning Program Information

The American Industrial Hygiene Association (AIHA), founded in 1939, is the world's largest association of occupational and environmental health professionals and its members play an important role on the front line of worker health and safety. The 12,000 members come from government, labor, industry, academia, and private business. AIHA is the most diverse professional association dedicated to the improvement of the health and well being of workers, the community, and the environment.

AIHA's Distance Learning Program offers a variety of educational opportunities for Industrial Hygienists, Safety, Environmental, and Occupational Health professionals. Courses combine the latest technology with expert knowledge to create quality, cost-effective training. Course formats accommodate different learning styles as well as time constraints of busy professionals.

Formats include

- TeleWeb Virtual Seminars
- Webcourses
- Self-Study Courses/ Workbooks
- CD-ROM/ DVDs
- Videos

It is easy to select a course that suits your individual needs and awards CM points, COCs, and CEUs — all from the convenience of your own home or office!
